Journal of Curriculum Theorizing

SUBSCRIPTION INFORMATION

JCT: Journal of Curriculum Theorizing is an interdisciplinary journal of curriculum studies. It offers an academic forum for scholarly discussions of curriculum. Aligned with the "reconceptualist" movement in curriculum theorizing, and oriented toward informing and affecting classroom practice, JCT presents compelling pieces within forms that challenge disciplinary, genre, and textual boundaries.

JCT is published four times each year, with Spring, Summer, Fall, and Winter issues. The 2008 publishing year is Volume 24.

Annual subscription rates for JCT to addresses in the United States and Canada are: $75 (U.S.) for individuals paying by personal check or credit card; $50 (U.S.) for students paying by personal check or credit card; and $150 (U.S.) for institutions, libraries, or orders to be invoiced to a purchase order number. For subscriptions to address outside the United States and Canada add $60 (U.S.) to each of the above categories.
